

There has been no greater time for local to global solidarity, and the Climate Kinship project invites individuals to apply who can commit to in person meaningful and insightful exchanges between generations on climate.

● Intergenerational Friendships

- One-to-one connections
- Fostering meaningful interactions
- Exchanging insight and wisdom

● Gatherings

- Bridging Knowledge and Action
- Environment and Food Security
- Eco-emotions and Hope

● Climate Action

- Indigenous perspectives on climate
- Understanding roles in climate justice
- Cultivating intergenerational climate solidarity

Register for the next cohort today!

